NIAGARA COUNTY BICENTENNIAL COMMITTEE HONORED WITH “LEADERSHIP NIAGARA 2008 LEADER OF THE YEAR AWARD”

NIAGARA COUNTY, NY – The Niagara County Bicentennial Committee was recently awarded “Leadership Niagara 2008 Leader of the Year Award.” The Bicentennial committee is co-chaired by Wayne F. Jagow, Niagara County Clerk and Wendy Roberson, First Deputy County Clerk and is made up of approximately 40 volunteer committee members who are working to build community pride and unity and to educate citizens and visitors of Niagara County about the 200 year history.

This year, 2008, marks the 200th anniversary of Niagara County with the official opening day of the bicentennial scheduled for March 11, 2008 at the County Court House Rotunda in Lockport.

Leadership Niagara, New York State’s oldest community leadership development program brings together current and emerging leaders from a wide range of backgrounds to expand knowledge about Niagara County, broaden networks, enhance leadership skills and encourage participation in assuming community leadership roles.
